La Marjal Park, San Juan Beach

La Marjal Flood Park is located a short distance from San Juan Beach, in an urban area developed on land that was once a marshland. It is a unique park which, in addition to the leisure and recreational function of any park, fulfils another hydraulic function: in the event of heavy rainfall it serves as a rainwater retention basin. It has a large pond surrounded by aquatic vegetation where you can observe the flora and fauna typical of the natural Valencian wetlands (marshes).

This park was awarded the Alhambra prize for the best project of the year 2015 by the Spanish Association of Public Parks and Gardens.

Excursion:

Departure from the cruise terminal by shuttle bus accompanied by a guide specialised in the subject of the excursion, water, flora, fauna and archaeology to transfer to the TRAM stop, a form of sustainable transport, in a reserved carriage. Throughout the journey you will observe different important places in the city in terms of water enclaves, including some of the Torres de las Huertas and watchtowers declared of national interest. This will all be explained by the guide.

Transfer to the park and guided tour. Duration approx. 1.5 hours.

After the visit, you will go to Espacio Lo Gozo, where you will be given a ticket to enjoy a bite to eat at any of their FOOD TRUCKS.

Return at the agreed time via the TRAM and shuttle bus. End of service.

DURATION: APPROX. 5 HOURS.

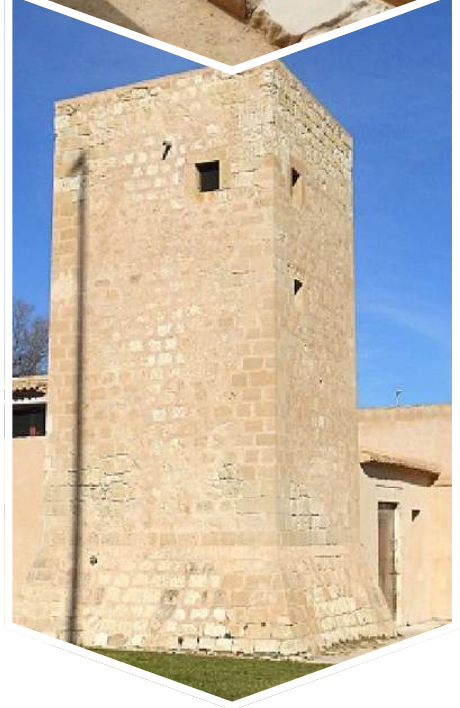

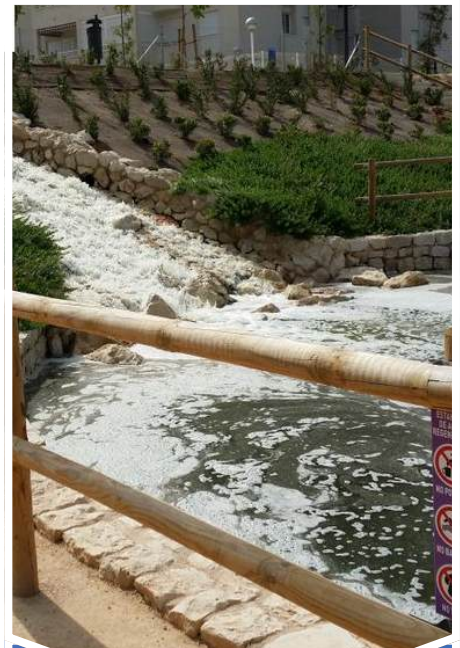

INCLUDES:

English-speaking guide trained in the subjects to be covered on the tour.

Enjoy a unique experience at our sensory Alicante D.O. cheese and wine tasting session

Departure from the cruise terminal by shuttle or on foot accompanied by our English-speaking gastronomic guide* to the new LA MILAGROSA terrace, opposite Santa Maria church, in the heart of the historic centre, just 500 metres from the port.

Accompanied by the master cheesemaker and international jury at the best cheese fairs, Chelo from TODOQUESOS, you will be immersed in an emotional and sensory journey during which every bite and every sip will awaken your senses.

During this tasting not only will you taste delicious drinks and exquisite cheeses carefully selected for you, but you will also experience their aromas, textures and nuances.

You will experience how the flavours develop on your palate, from the smooth creaminess to the intensity of the cured cheeses accompanied by sweet, fruity or spicy notes, creating the perfect combination.

The aromas will transport you to green pastures, meadows, ancient wine cellars....

Each sense plays an essential role:

Sight will allow you to appreciate the different colours, eyes and veins in the cheese.

Sound will help you hear the intensity when cutting the cheese.

Touch will allow you to discover its consistency and texture.

Although it may seem like you only use your mouth to taste, your sense of smell plays a role in anticipating each flavour.

And last but not least, taste will delight you with a combination of warmth, freshness and texture in your mouth, appreciating the five tasting qualities: sweet, sour, bitter, salty and umami.

This tasting includes 8 varieties paired with Alicante D.O. wines and beers (white, red, craft beer and sweet wine).

Be guided by the experts and enjoy this experience!!!

DURATION: APPROX. 3.5 HOURS.

INCLUDES:

Gastronomic guide

Sensory cheese tasting.

NOTE: Minimum of 15 and maximum of 30 people per group.

Two tours can be arranged per day.
